LET US RUSH OUT AND TAKE VICTORY

Procrastination and Over-Confidence, the Greatest Foes to Contestants.

Enthusiasm gives vitality and vigor to all the positive qualities. It overcomes difficulties, wins over the hostile and the indifferent, carries you through discouragement and lightens every task. "Great habit, enthusiasm." We rejoice to note the enthusiasm some of the contestants have had throughout the race, but we fear some are becoming over-confident. The only way to win is to keep everlastingly after subscriptions. Don't depend on a rush on the home stretch to pull you into first position. It is the constant dripping that wears away stone, and likewise constantly, everlastingly keeping after subscriptions will wear away the distance between your present standing and the grand prize. While it is true that the duration of the contest has been shortened by the week just passed, there is yet ample time for some good honest worker to come in and completely revise the standing of the contestants now in the lead. Let me call your attention to a thing not many of you are doing, viz: "Concentration." Concentration of thought upon the prize you want to win. Concentration of mind upon the best method in which to approach the new subscribers. Concentration of forces. Get your friends together and by your earnest enthusiasm, secure their support and condensed efforts in your behalf. The successful politician begins his canvass early and keeps

News From Markley Heights

REVIEW BUREAU,
Nov. 2, 1910

A young men's quartette from Waukegan will sing at Bethel Reformed church Sunday morning. The young men sing well and we should be pleased to have a large audience hear them.

There has been a good interest in the evangelistic services at Bethel Reformed church. Rev. J. D. Andrew of Burlington is doing the preaching. These services will continue until Sunway night.

Joseph H. Clodfelter and Miss Rachel Welch were united in matrimony Wednesday night by Rev. D. E. Bowers.

everlastingly at it until the last vote is polled. If you win the grand prize you will have to do likewise. The time for this grand contest to close is going to slip upon you while you are putting off until tomorrow or next week to do your work. Take this hint and get busy quick. "Better be safe than sorry."

ANOTHER PRIZE WON

For the last ten days every one connected with The Review's popularity contest have put forth every effort to win the special millinery prize given by Miss Venetia Smith, the popular milliner. Never was a more beautiful home stretch witnessed. So keen was the rivalry for the last few hours that no very great difference exists between the winner and those who followed in close pursuit. Miss Lillie Rochelle carried off the prize. Next came Miss Etta White of Archdale, a very popular contestant, and deserves special mention as she held a very close second and did it all in less than a week. Had she started after the hat with the others, she would have carried off the prize easily. After the dust had cleared away, we found Miss Mary Denson was right on hand and had there been a second prize, it would have been very hard to decide whether she or Miss White would have been the one to take it. Miss Juanita Hammer holds fourth place. She did some very good work, but waited too late to get in earnest about it. When she did start she made a fine last quarter. Miss Hattie Gray was next in order and made a very good showing. Hurry up, Miss Gray. You have a good chance. We know your qualities and in the next race we expect to see you in first place. Are we expecting too much? Surely not. And thus The Review and its happy throng of contestants rush out and take great victories. Before the contest closes The Review will cover the state like the dew.

A WORD OF THANKS.

I wish by this means to thank all the young ladies who worked so earnestly for the contest during the past ten days. You have made wonderful progress and each of you have placed the Handsome Piano nearer your home. To Miss Lillie Rochelle goes the congratulations of the manager, and I am quite sure every one of our contestants. Wishing you all continued success and assuring you that I stand ever ready to assist any of you, I am,

Sincerely your friend,
R. V. BIDEZ,
Contest Manager.

A WONDERFUL RECORD

Nothing to Compare With It.

Advertisers Take Notice!

In the past ten days The Review has taken in SIX HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-THREE DOLLARS in subscriptions to The Review---the people's paper---showing conclusively that the people want and must have the paper that is with the people, for the people and by the people. Since our contest started seven weeks ago we have placed on our books TWENTY-ONE HUNDRED AND FIVE new subscribers and with our old subscribers on books now have the largest list of paid subscribers to a weekly in the county, reaching a big majority of the homes in the city and surrounding territory and being read by at least twenty thousand people each week. OUR SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS ARE OPEN TO OUR ADVERTISERS FOR INSPECTION AND VERIFICATION. ADVERTISERS TAKE NOTICE. 'NUF SED.

EXERCISES AT THE LUTHERAN CHURCH

Special services were held Sunday morning at the Lutheran church the same being in celebration of the 393rd anniversary of the Reformation. "Waste Places" was the subject chosen by the pastor and the sermon was delivered in a most interesting and forcible manner. Special music was rendered by the choir.

ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT.

The Boston Sextette was the attraction at the Auditorium Tuesday night, and the large crowd present thoroughly enjoyed all the numbers on the program.

WISE SAYINGS.

A man who has had delirium tremens and wallowed in the gutters is not a fit subject to preach morality and sobriety too strongly.

The election returns will show which way the wind blows.

Crippen will perhaps bid us adieu on election day---too bad.

SENATOR OVERMAN'S SPEECH

A great speech---that of Senator Overman at the warehouse Wednesday night. A large crowd and an abundance of enthusiasm, notwithstanding the rainy weather. Senator Overman is all to the good and what he did for Mary Ann Butler and his crowd was a plenty. People listen to and believe in such a man as Mr. Overman.

GOOD WORK

Mayor Tate, chairman of the Traffic and Transportation Committee of the Manufacturers Club, has succeeded in restoring the High Point-Richmond package car. Some weeks ago a change was made and High Point merchandise from Richmond went to the transfer at Spencer and then back here again, necessitating a long and unnecessary delay, and of course, working a hardship on the people. The Review the past three weeks has had shipments delayed in this way and has caused no little annoyance. Direct shipments from Richmond reach here in a day or so whereas it takes a whole week to be transferred from Spencer and then sent back here again. Chairman Tate struck a good lick in this direction. The editor of The Review had already written the Chamber of Commerce of Richmond given them the information and calling on that organization to right the wrong.

MAJOR STEADMAN TONIGHT.

Tonight at the warehouse that gallant Confederate soldier and gentleman, Chas. M. Steadman, candidate for Congress from the Fifth District, will speak, and a large crowd will hear him. The Confederate veterans will attend in a body, wearing their uniforms.

SMALL WRECK

Due to the derailment of three cars and the trucks of the engine of the Asheboro train in the southern part of the city Thursday at noon, traffic was blocked on this road for several hours.

Young Mr. L. E. Ryan, employed at the freight office, fell from a freight car Wednesday and barely missed being ground to death by the wheels. A lucky escape.

Crippen will be given a hearing Saturday in London, to see whether or not his sentence of death is commuted to life imprisonment. He was convicted solely on circumstantial evidence, and no doubt would have come clear in America.

The John S. Wilborn residence on Centennial street has been purchased by Mr. J. V. Wilson.

Mrs. S. H. Tomlinson entertained her friends at an informal tea Tuesday afternoon, in honor of her guest, Mrs. Smith.

A small blaze was discovered early Monday morning at the Ellison factory which, however, was confined to a trash pile, and was soon put out before any damage resulted.

ELECTION RETURNS

Friends and Patrons of The Review and Everyone Else Will Be Given the News Every Minute or So Tuesday.

The Review has made arrangements whereby complete election returns will be given the people of High Point Tuesday night in front of The Review office, commencing at an early hour and lasting until after midnight or just as long as the people want to hear the news from all over the United States.

This news will come to the Review through a special service and read to the people hot from the wire. Our phone service will also be brought into requisition and the nearby points will be heard from at will and our rural friends are asked to call us up for the news at any moment they so desire.

Much interest centers in New York, Ohio and other states and of course all want to hear from North Carolina, Guilford and other counties.

Come out early and stay as late as you will---our doors and all that we have are open to you---make yourself at home.

MRS. M. B. BOWMAN DEAD

Passes Peacefully Away a Few Minutes After 12 O'clock Tuesday Morning.

After an illness of a few days, due to paralysis of the brain, Mrs. M. B. Bowman, relict of the late H. Clay Bowman, fell on sleep Tuesday morning. Deceased was a consecrated Christian woman, a member of the First Presbyterian church and her death will be mourned by all who knew her. Surviving are three children; a brother and a sister---Miss Eva Thurston and Mr. Will Thurston.

The funeral services were held from the house on West Green street at 3:30 P. M., Wednesday, Rev. being conducted by A. S. Caldwell, of the First Presbyterian church. Interment was in the city cemetery. A large number of friends gathered to pay their respects and followed the remains to the cemetery. The floral offerings were quite pretty.

Miss Fannie Matton has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. W. Goodman, in Greensboro.

Evidently little Miss Frances Bain can draw a goose to perfection. She won first prize of $5.00 in contest by Blair-Hoskins. Ed. Barker won second and Albert Loftin third, $3.00 and $2.00 respectively. These won one dollar each: Skiles Hoffman, Eugenia Shields, Leslie Hedgecock, Louise Ingram and Seborn Perry. The pictures drawn by the young people are now on display in the window of the above firm.
